Next Meeting
Tuesday, October 20, 2009
 5:30 p.m. Granny Shaffer's Restaurant
Sherwin-Williams Company

Our next meeting will be this coming Tuesday, October 20, 2009. We will have our buffet supper at 5:30 p.m. with our program to start at approximately 6:15 p.m. Cost of the meal is $10 per person. Reservations are not required and guests are always welcome.

Speaker this month will be Curtis Collings, Manager of Sherwin-Williams Company in Carthage. Additional guest speakers will be store managers from the two Joplin locations. They will explain the benefits of opening a commercial account and discounts available to account holders.

Bring all your questions and concerns about painting and how to protect and maintain your investment properties. They will bring some free merchandise to give away. Don't miss the opportunity to get answers to your 'tough' questions from these local experts.

Annual Election of Officers To Be Held at October Meeting

The annual election of officers shall be held at our October 20 meeting. There are three Board seats up for election for 2009. Those seats belong to: David Enke, Daryl Rhodes and Tye Nance. We have two unfilled vacancies which expire in 2010 to fill.

The two unexpired vacancies are John Hutchison's and Lynn Enke's. The Enke's have sold all their rental properties and will no longer serve on our Board.

People who have stepped forward and volunteered for service are: Daryl Rhodes, Tye Nance, Dave McGarrah, Clark Millis and Paul Mosbaugh. If you are interested in serving on the Board, please contact a Board member or nominate yourself at our October 20 meeting!

ELECTION WILL BE HELD ON OCTOBER 20. You must be a current, paid member to serve and vote.

Ms. Cheryl Brown
Chief Executive Officer
Southwest Missouri Rental Housing Association
17305 Hwy. FF
Diamond, Missouri 64840

Dear Cheryl:

For several years, I have been honored to be the "referred counsel" for the Southwest Missouri Rental Housing Association. I hope that my services have been effective for the members. I have certainly learned a lot about landlord-tenant law over the last few years.

Naturally, as time has passed, my practice has changed. When I began my representation, I was not a Municipal Judge for the City of Joplin, and quite frankly, I was several years younger.

My duties as Municipal Judge have expanded; I now cover Court two weeks a month. This means that I am unavailable for Monday return date hearings at least twice a month and that I have less time to be available to the members as I am not in the office very much during those two weeks.

Recently, we hired a new attorney, Lynn Stanley, who came to us from the Blanchard Firm and has practiced law for about 7 years. He has a lot of experience in landlord-tenant law. Lynn and I have discussed this situation and he is excited to be available to become the "referred counsel" for the Association.

Accordingly, the purpose of this correspondence is to advise you that I think it best that I no longer be listed in your newsletter as "referred counsel". Lynn would be happy to meet with the Board, at the Board's convenience, to discuss his representation of members. Again, he would be able to continue services at a reduced rate as we have provided since our involvement.

If you have questions, please contact me. If not, please contact Lynn at the above listed number to discuss any questions you might have.

Sincerely yours,

WARTEN, FISHER, LEE AND BROWN, L.L.C.

Tax Calendar for Small Businesses on IRS.gov

Are you running a small business? Would you like a calendar packed with valuable business tax information? The IRS is offering a free calendar to help you keep track of tax deadlines and important dates throughout the year.

You might be surprised to learn that the IRS publishes a calendar, like our popular Web site, IRS.gov, the calendar is part of our many services to help owners and operators of small businesses.

The Tax Calendar for Small Businesses and Self-Employed Individuals from the Internal Revenue Service is a 12-month calendar filled with deadline reminders, important information such as changes in deductible mileage rates and business tips such as how to organize business and travel expenses.

This widely-used special business tax calendar provides the small business owner with a ready resource for meeting his or her tax obligations.

Each page of the calendar highlights different tax issues and tips such as business planning, accounting methods, tracking your records, and protecting your information that are especially relevant to small-business owners. The calendar has room each month to add notes, state tax dates or business appointments.

Topics include information on general business taxes, IRS and Social Security Administration customer assistance, electronic filing and paying options, retirement plans, business publications and forms, common tax filing dates, federal holidays and much more.

The 2009 IRS Tax Calendar for Small Businesses and Self-Employed, Publication 1518, is now available in both English and Spanish versions. For an online version of the calendar, visit the Small Business Self-Employed pages on the IRS Web site at IRS.gov. (Or go to www.tax.gov/calendar) On IRS.gov you can download the tax calendar due dates and actions, and import them into Outlook or iCal. Printed copies of the tax calendar can also be ordered online or by calling 800-TAX-FORM (800-829-3676).

Remember that for the genuine IRS Web site be sure to use .gov. Don't be confused by internet sites that end in .com, .net, .org or other designations instead of .gov. The address of the official IRS governmental Web site is www.irs.gov.

Proposed By-Law Changes

The Board of Directors has proposed the following change(s) to our By-laws. In accordance with the By-Laws, a 40-day notice is required before a vote can be held on the proposed changes. First notice was by e-mail to members on September 1. These changes will be voted on at our October meeting.

ARTICLE III Membership

Section 1: There shall be three two classes of membership as follows:

Owner Member: Owners and/or managers of rental housing or apartment dwellings.
A membership shall include anyone that shares a financial interest or management responsibilities in the property or properties.

Manager Member: Property Managers who are employed by a Owner Member. This membership must be attached to a existing Owner Member account.

Associate Members: Trades people who service, supply, or otherwise deal with rental housing; banks; building and loan associations and other mortgage lenders; title companies; insurance companies; and other person or institutions interested in and sympathetic with the objectives of the Association.

Section 2: Each Owner, Manager and Associate membership shall have one vote.

Section 3: Association members shall be admitted to membership by majority authorized vote of the membership at any meeting of the Association, or by majority vote of the Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors, provided that applicants for membership shall have complied with requirements prescribed by Directors and general membership.

We will allow for a discussion on these changes at the September and October meetings. If you have any suggestions or recommendations, please bring them forward at the meeting.
